ARMY EMERGENCY RELIEF Phone: 438-9285 Bldg: S-330 (ARMY COMMUNITY SERVICE CENTER)	Active duty and retired army service members, family members, widow(er) and orphans of deceased soldiers.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION/SERVICES PROVIDED

The Army Community Service Center at Fort Shafter provides Army Emergency Relief (AER) applications, screening, and schedule appointments. This location employs a referral specialist who is available for initial assistance for services with further referral to the AER section at Schofield Barracks, where direct financial assistance is obtained.

Army Emergency Relief (AER) assists with emergency financial needs through interest-free loans, grants (when loan repayment would cause undue hardship), and loan and grant combination (when partial payment can be made without undue hardship). Headquarters AER provides monetary assistance for dependent student educational scholarships.

Active duty Army, retirees, and their dependents, orphans and widow(er)s of active duty or retired personnel are eligible for AER services. Military identification and documentation is required. Clients must show need and the need must fall within authorized categories established by Army regulations.
